Adverbs tell us how, where and when. How does God keep his promise? By lovingly sending us his Son, our Saviour. Where and when does that promise come true? Once in a manger. Now in our hearts. And forever, in paradise again. Now that Christmas and Advent are over, let me share a favourite prayer of mine with you that I hope will stay in your heart forever. Be near me, Lord Jesus! I ask you to stay close by me forever and love me I pray. Bless all the dear children in your tender care and take us to heaven to live with you there.

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex...The Jubilee reminds us that we can start anew, indeed, that we are still at the beginning and that the Lord wants his presence to grow among us as God-with-us. Thus, dear brothers and sisters, it is wonderful to become pilgrims of hope. It is wonderful for us to continue to be pilgrims together! The faithfulness of God continues to amaze us.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-859-5522 . Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.

A young man was visiting his brother and sister-in-law and was surprised to find his young nephew, helping them bake the cupcakes. After they were done, his sister-in-law allowed the young boy to put the icing on.

When he had finished, he brought them to the table. "The cupcakes look beautiful," his uncle said. "How did you get them iced so evenly?" His nephew replied, "I licked them." – I suppose that is one way of getting the job done, even if it may not be the best way! God has revealed that the way for us to get our job—which is to follow God's will for us—done is to have a childlike confidence in our Father's care. We appreciate the innocence and spontaneity of children, for we were once that way too. But now, as adults, we have apparently learned a better way. We now admire the streetwise, the shrewd, and the clever, for they are the ones who get ahead in life. And in the process, faith in God becomes belittled and forgotten. We certainly cannot go back to our childhood; but we can retain our childlike trust in God. No matter how old you we may be, we are always a child in God's sight.

Bible Study Course: Abraham Father of Faith

When: Monday 7:30-9:30 PM - St. Mary's Church Hall Dates: Jan. 26-June 15 (excluding 4 holiday Mondays) Cost: $60.00

Contact: Parish Office at 905-859-5522 or gillianvivona@gmail.com for registration and inquiries.

When your kids ignore you (and they all do at some point), you try everything to get them to listen. You enlist other people—teachers, role models, coaches—to reinforce your messages. And still you can feel they aren't listening. Jesus knows how you feel. He's tried sad songs (dirges) and happy flutes—and people ignored him. God sent John the Baptist to talk, and people complained about his methods. He sent Jesus, and people got caught up in how the message was delivered that they forgot to listen to the message itself. The next time you sigh loudly because your kids aren't listening, just stop and listen yourself. What is Jesus saying to you? Take a listening walk together. Alternate between listening and reporting the sounds you hear. For example, you might stay silent for one block and share what you hear on the next block.

On the Lighter Side... A man decided to skip services one Sunday and head to the hills to do some bear hunting. As he rounded the corner on a perilous twist in the trail, he and a bear collided, sending him and his rifle tumbling down the mountainside. "Oh Lord," he prayed, "I'm so sorry for skipping church today to come out here and hunt. Please forgive me and grant me just one wish.... please make a Christian out of that bear that's coming at me. Please, Lord!" That very instant, the bear skidded to a halt, fell to its knees, clasped its paws together and began to pray aloud right at the man's feet. "Dear Lord, bless this food I am about to receive... in Jesus' name... Amen."

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. Pat's Parish and St. Mary's Church. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church.

Next meetings: Tues. Feb 3rd at 7 pm at St. Pat's Wed. Feb 4th at 7 pm St. Mary's

Communion Reflection... We are told that chaos ruled when God stepped out into space. God's spirit was sorting things out on the surface—brooding over the dark and churning waters—performing important reconnaissance before the first assault. Then "light!" sent darkness skittering away. Chaos was finding it had met its match. But before even that happened, "in the beginning" happened. Time itself took on its frame and form—a skeleton that would give creation its structure. Before the beginning, there was "no time." And then...in no time at all, God created time itself—an empty page on which could be printed the whole rest of the story. The story would end up including settings like Eden, Ur, a stable. It would include plots that involved betrayal, redemption, forgiveness, great battles of good versus evil, it would embrace characters like Abraham, Mary, Jesus... and you.

Found on the wall in Mother Teresa's home for children in Calcutta...

People are often unreasonable, irrational, and self-centered. Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some unfaithful friends and some genuine enemies. Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and sincere people may deceive you. Be honest and sincere anyway.

What you spend years creating, others could destroy overnight. Create anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous. Be happy anyway.

The good you do today, will often be forgotten. Do good anyway.

Give the best you have, and it will never be enough. Give your best anyway.

In the final analysis, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway.
