Communion Reflection... I must be filled with joy if my feet are on the right road and my face set towards the gate which is called beautiful, though I may fall many times in the mire and often in the mist go astray. Far off, like a perfect pearl, one can see the City of God. It is so wonderful that it seems as if a child could reach it in a summer's day. And so a child could. But with me and such as me it is different. One can realise a thing in a single moment, but one loses it in the long hours that follow the leaden feet. We think in terms of eternity, but we move slowly through time.

On the Lighter Side: Have you heard about corduroy pillows? They're making headlines. Why did the cowboy get a wiener dog? He wanted to get a long little doggie.

Sometimes our burdens may seem to be more than we can bear, especially when they are exacerbated by someone who makes our life almost unbearable. When we are overwhelmed by our own burdens and cares, how can we be expected to bear the burdens of other? God doesn't ask any more of us than he himself has experienced. In the person of his Son, he carried the weight of all of humanity's failings and burdens to the cross, where his heart was broken for us, so that we might be set free from the crushing burden of our countless offenses. There at the foot of the cross, our Lord invites us to lay our guilt and burdens down—and leave them there. Having been freed from the penalty of our sin, our load is light and enough that we can lighten the burdens of others, by sharing the weight of their heavy load. Even more important, we can invite them to join us at the foot of the cross, where Christ will become our mutual burden-bearer.

Feast of St. Francis of Assisi Sat October 4th

FRANCISCAN MORNING PRAYER

Jesus Lord, I offer you this new day because I believe in You, love You hope all things in You and thank You for Your blessings. I am sorry for having offended You and forgive everyone who has offended me. Lord, look on me and leave in me peace and courage and Your humble wisdom that I may serve others with joy, and be pleasing to you all day.

Prayer of St Francis

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace,
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
where there is sadness, joy;

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.

For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. Mary's and St. Pat's Parish. It is the beginning of a life-long relationship with Christ and with His Church. If you are new to the parish or have perhaps not registered yet, please do so by using parish envelopes. Preparation booklets and application forms are available at the back of the church.

Next meeting: Tues. Nov 4th at 7 pm St. Pat's
Wed. Nov 5th at 7 pm St. Mary's

October is the Month of the Rosary... Catholics honour Mary in a special way under the title "Our Lady of the Rosary." Often we come together to pray the rosary publicly, perhaps before daily Mass in our parish churches. Each year we renew the prayer that has been such a large part of the prayer life of believers for many centuries.

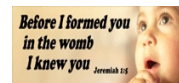

Celebrities in all fields are the object of close scrutiny by photographers and reporters who want to know their every activity. Where they are seen, with whom they are seen, and what they are doing, becomes the center of interest to vast numbers of curious individuals who want to record every word while photographing every move. When Jesus walked the earth, He had no photographers and no one recorded His every word yet; what He did is remembered to this day. We have no "sound bites" and no candid photos but the written words of those who talked to His followers still inspire millions. When you ask the present generation about celebrities of past years, they might not even recognize their names. Everyone knows who Jesus was. Maybe that's because He spoke the truth and wasn't influenced by what His listeners might think.

Candy Collection... We are asking the children to donate some of the candy they receive on Halloween for children in the Third World. To these children, it could mean the difference between life and death. Malnourishment stops the digestive system from working. The sugar in the candy helps the digestive system to re-start, thus saving the child. We are asking for hard candy (anything that will not melt in a Container) - NO CHOCOLATE PLEASE. This will be collected through our schools beginning, Oct 30th through Nov. 6th. To be distributed by Canadian Food For Children, Dr. Andrew Simone.

Walter Ciszek SJ spent fifteen years in forced labour camps in Siberia. Through all those years he belonged to the lowest brigades doing the dirtiest work – digging foundations by hand, carving out with pick and shovel long sewer trenches through the frozen ground, loading and unloading with bare hands the heavy construction materials, crawling in damp, dark mines, where death was always only one careless step away. What kept him going? He says: 'Men died in the camp, especially when they gave up hope. But I trusted in God, and so I never felt abandoned or without hope. I owe my survival to my faith in God.' Of all the things we can give another person the greatest is trust. Lord, increase our faith in you, so that we may trust you more fully in all the happenings of our lives, great and small, bitter and sweet.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-859-5522 . Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.

LIFE CHAIN 2025 - Nobleton Sun. Oct. 5, 2-3 pm. Hwy 27 at King Road. Life Chain is a powerful and prayerful way to be a witness to the Truth and to Life. It takes only an hour and all you have to do is stand quietly on the sidewalk, holding a sign with a simple pro-life message. As you stand, you can pray quietly for mothers and children.

Have a wonderful week!!
