Cardinal Leo will be celebrating Mass
Sunday, March 8th 2026.

Biblical quiet has little to do with sound, but rather silent hearts, minds and spirits. The world does not value biblical quiet, but quite the opposite. We are constantly told to "Stay current to keep up!" We try, but our ever-increasing attempts are making many of us sick—and we know it. "If you don't keep up, you get left behind!" That's our fear. But we were not designed to "keep up!" Jesus never indicated that "keeping up" is life's goal. His message is not "keep up!" but "be still, and stay close to me!" To all those dizzy and disoriented trying to "keep up," Jesus said, "Come to me, all who are heavy laden, and I will give you rest..." In other words: "Shhhh, I'm by your side. Here's a good seat. Stay close."

Communion Reflection... Can a man grow from the dead clod of failure some consoling flower, something to wear as a buttonhole in Heaven?? Under the flat, flat grief of defeat maybe, Hope is a seed. Maybe this is what he was born for, this hour of hopelessness. Maybe it is here he must search. In the hell of unfaith where no one has a purpose, where the web of meaning is broken threads, and one man looks at another in fear. O God, can a man find You when he lies with his face downwards, and his nose in the rubble that was his achievement? Is the music playing behind the door of despair? O God, give us purpose.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-859-5522. Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.

Prayer for the Deceased

Remember, Lord, those who have died and have gone before us, marked with the sign of faith, especially those for whom we now pray.

May these and all who sleep in Christ, find in your presence light, happiness and peace.

Through Christ our Lord.

On The Lighter Side: A Sunday School teacher needed some supplies from a cupboard that was seldom used and was secured with a lock. She didn't know the combination, but the clergyman offered to give it a try. Father Jack placed his fingers on the lock's dial and raised his eyes heavenward for a moment. Then he confidently spun the dial and opened the lock. Seeing how impressed the Catechist was with this demonstration of faith, he smiled and confided, "The numbers are written on the ceiling."

Communion Reflection.. Have you ever thought God is far away from you? Too high and majestic for you to approach. The day Jesus died, the temple curtain was torn in two. This curtain separated the temple's most holy place from all else. It was only accessible once per year, by the high priest who made a special sacrifice for all of Israel's sins. When God supernaturally tore this thick curtain, He made sure it tore from top to bottom—from heaven to earth. He wanted us to know that through the gift of grace, everyone who believes has full access to his inner circle. Since Jesus himself was the sacrifice for all time, we can now boldly approach God's throne in prayer. God is now accessible to you. Through top-to-bottom grace, he is Immanuel, God is with us.

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries. "May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God's eternal kingdom in heaven."

Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar.

Today's Quote: Often the difference between a successful marriage and a mediocre one consists of leaving about three or four things a day unsaid.

What would most people say was their life's greatest moment—perhaps the birth of a child, winning an award or fulfilling a dream? What has been life's greatest moment for you? Was it when you achieved a lofty goal or perhaps a time when you triumphed over adversity? Jesus' greatest moment was his moment of ultimate vulnerability, as he was about to breathe his last breath. He had conquered the control of sin and would soon defeat the power of death. When the day draws near for us to breathe our final breath, may our most vulnerable moment be our greatest moment, as we complete our earthly mission. May we pray confidently the words of the Psalm which Jesus echoed on the cross, "Into your hand I commit my spirit; you have redeemed me, O Lord, faithful God." But why wait until then? That's a great prayer for the close of every day.

This Weeks 2nd Collection: Shepherds'

Trust As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust ensures our priests can live their retirement years with dignity. For many of our retired shepherds, this means "lending a hand" to accommodate their special needs so that they continue to live with dignity. This fund does more than just support our priests in their retirement years; it is a way to care for those who always cared for us and give thanks for the blessings we have received through them.

Prayer to Live With Grace

May we discover through pain and torment, the strength to live with grace and humor. May we discover through doubt and anguish, the strength to live with dignity and holiness. May we discover through suffering and fear, the strength to move toward healing. May it come to pass that we be restored to health and to vigor. May Life grant us wellness of body, spirit, and mind. And if this cannot be so, may we find in this transformation and passage moments of meaning, opportunities for love and the deep and gracious calm that comes when we allow ourselves to move on.

Sunday Missals for Sale... The church is selling Sunday Missals at both St. Pat's & St. Mary's. Cost is $7.00. Please contact the parish office at 905-859-5522.

Have a wonderful week!!
