Next Meeting Thurs. Nov 6th at 7:30 pm St. Pat's

Before any of the Scriptures were written God saw fit to have His word spread by oral tradition. Prophets, rabbis, temple teachers and Apostles passed on God's wisdom by word of mouth to a population that often was unable to read. Only later were the stories and lessons put on paper and preserved in scrolls. God still uses stories that bring to life the lessons of old. Today they take the form of family remembrances passed on from older generations. They are more than entertaining memories, they are parables that teach a moral. Sticking together in hard times, laughing together in joyful days all teach the youngsters how to cope when coping seems so difficult. Behind it all is a lively faith that truly believes nothing is impossible with God. Listen carefully to those who tell them. They are modern day Apostles and they won't live forever.

Flowers for Our Lady of Guadalupe for the week of Nov 2nd to Nov 8th are being offered for the departed souls of our dear loved ones

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex... On the paths of the heart, the Risen One walks with us and for us. Jesus bears witness to the defeat of death and affirms the victory of life, despite the darkness of Calvary. Our lived history still has much goodness in which to hope.

Cost is $7.00. Please contact the parish office at 905-859-5522.

Baptism Preparation... The Baptism of your child is an important event in the life of St. Mary's and St. Pat's Parish.

Next meeting: Tues. Nov 4th at 7 pm at St. Pat's
Wed. Nov 5th at 7 pm St. Mary's

Candy Collection... We are asking the children to donate some of the candy they receive on Halloween for children in the Third World. To these children, it could mean the difference between life and death. Malnourishment stops the digestive system from working. The sugar in the candy helps the digestive system to re-start, thus saving the child. We are asking for hard candy (anything that will not melt in a Container) - NO CHOCOLATE PLEASE. This will be collected through our schools beginning, Oct 30th through Nov. 6th. To be distributed by Canadian Food For Children, Dr. Andrew Simone.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-859-5522. Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.

Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory

O gentle Heart of Jesus, ever present in the Blessed Sacrament,
ever consumed with burning love for the poor
captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on them.
Be not severe in Your judgments, but let some drops of
Your Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames.
And, Merciful Saviour, send Your angels to conduct them to a place of refreshment, light, and peace. Amen.

Communion Reflection... It is only with the heart that we can repent rightly. Repentance must involve a change of heart. Anything less won't produce a new being. It will be like decapitating weeds while leaving the roots intact. But if we change our hearts, then we will change our lives too. After his encounter with Jesus, Zacchaeus' heart burst into life like a desert landscape after a rainfall. Fear can't produce a conversion of heart; only an encounter with love can. Zacchaeus' conversion was a conversion to goodness. All of us stand in daily need of such conversion. We need to move from a closed heart to an open heart, from a heart of stone to a heart of flesh.

On the Lighter Side... An elderly woman walked into the local country church. The friendly usher greeted her at the door and helped her up the flight of steps. "Where would you like to sit?" he asked politely. "The front row please," she answered. "You really don't want to do that," the usher said. "The pastor is really boring." "Do you happen to know who I am?" the woman inquired. "No," he said. "I'm the pastor's mother," she replied indignantly. "Well, do you know who I am?" he asked. "No," she said. "Good," he answered. Come and Join Us!

Utility of Prayer for the Departed... It is the traditional faith of Catholics that the souls in purgatory are not separated from the Church, and that the love which is the bond of union between the Church's members should embrace those who have departed this life in God's grace. Hence, since our prayers and our sacrifices can help those who are still waiting in purgatory, the saints have not hesitated to warn us that we have a real duty toward those who are still in purgatorial expiation. Holy Church through the Congregation of Indulgences, December 18, 1885, has bestowed a special blessing on the so-called "heroic act" in virtue of which "a member of the Church militant offers to God for the souls in purgatory all the satisfactory works which he will perform during his lifetime, and also all the suffrages which may accrue to him after his death" (Heroic Act, vol. VII, 292). The practice of devotion to the dead is also consoling to humanity and eminently worthy of a religion which seconds all the purest feelings of the human heart. "Sweet", says Cardinal Wiseman (lecture XI), "is the consolation of the dying man, who, conscious of imperfection, believes that there are others to make intercession for him, when his own time for merit has expired; soothing to the afflicted survivors the thought that they possess powerful means of relieving their friend. In the first moments of grief, this sentiment will often overpower religious prejudice, cast down the unbeliever on his knees beside the remains of his friend and snatch from him an unconscious prayer for rest; it is an impulse of nature which for the moment, aided by the analogies of revealed truth, seizes at once upon this consoling belief. But it is only a flitting and melancholy light, while the Catholic feeling, cheering though with solemn dimness, resembles the unfailing lamp, which the piety of the ancients is said to have hung before the sepulchres of their dead."

Have a wonderful week!!
