Cardinal Leo will be celebrating Mass

Sunday, March 8th 2026.

From the Pastor Nutrition is an important aspect of everyone's life. Parents provide for their child's dietary needs by carefully choosing healthy foods and also try to give good example by their own eating habits. Messages in the media constantly remind us that good nutrition will help ward off disease of all sorts. Sometimes it doesn't hurt to examine how well we provide for the spiritual nourishment of those we love. The example we give by our prayerful trust in God when everything seems to be falling apart makes more of an impression than we realize. People often relate how their parents, spouse or close friends managed to stay strong through one family crisis after another. The silent strength they possessed spoke loud and clear of the deep faith that dwelt quietly within them. We remember many of these people on All Souls Day because of their spiritual influence on our lives. How many will remember us for the faith we had that nourished their souls?

Flowers for Our Lady of Guadalupe for the week of Nov 9th to Nov 15th are being offered for the departed souls of our dear loved ones

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex...Our beloved Pope Francis and our brother Cardinals and Bishops, who have left us during the past year and for whom we offered Mass, have lived, witnessed, and taught paschal hope. The Lord called them and appointed them as shepherds in his Church, and through their ministry they have guided many on the path of the Gospel.

Candy Collection... Thank you to all the children and Parishioners who donated candy for the children in the Third World. To these children, these candies mean the difference between life and death. The sugar in the candy helps the digestive system to re-start, thus saving the child.

Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.

Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory

O gentle Heart of Jesus,
ever present in the Blessed Sacrament,
ever consumed with burning love for the poor
captive souls in Purgatory, have mercy on them.
Be not severe in Your judgments, but let some drops of
Your Precious Blood fall upon the devouring flames.
And, Merciful Saviour, send Your angels to conduct them to a place of refreshment, light, and peace. Amen.

11 NOVEMBER
REMEMBRANCE DAY
Let us not forget

Remembrance Day... Remembrance Day was first observed in 1919 throughout the British Commonwealth. It was originally called "Armistice Day" to commemorate the armistice agreement that ended the First World War on Monday, November 11, 1918, at 11 am—on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. Every year on November 11, Canadians pause in a moment of silence to honour and remember the men and women who have served, and continue to serve Canada during times of war, conflict and peace. We remember the more than 2,300,000 Canadians who have served throughout our nation's history and the more than 118,000 who made the ultimate sacrifice. This year, though we may not be able to gather at the cenotaph, we can still honour the brave men and women who made the ultimate sacrifice for their country. Will we continue to remember our war heroes? I hope so. Some say "let the dead bury their dead," however, and with many veterans passing on, the future of Remembrance Day can seem as bleak as the November sky. The lapel pins we wear on Remembrance Day actually started as a fund-raiser for Belgian children orphaned by the Great War. Will our own children care in the future? They should. It is important to use this day as an opportunity to encourage people to think about where we've gotten using war as a solution to our problems, to think about the lives lost and to think about new ways we can make the world a better place. There are so few people left alive who know what a global war is like. Soon, there won't be any. We wear the poppy in remembrance. If the poppy, a symbol of death and loss, doesn't also serve as a potent symbol of the need for peace, what could? You can tell people what happened long ago, and that's history – nothing can change it, but it is not something that should be forgotten, nor should the men and women who gave so much for the freedom we now enjoy. On November 11 we remember those who gave their life for others, our war heroes and our first responders.

On The Lighter Side: A child was watching his mother sift through and delete a long list of junk E-mail on the computer screen. "This reminds me of the Lord's Prayer," the child said. "What do you mean?" the mother asked. "You know. That part about 'deliver us from E-mails.'"

Communion Reflection.. We are born in exile and die there too. As soon as we set sail on the great voyage of life, we begin our return. When we die, we do not so much go to God as return to him. Like homesick cranes that fly night and day back to their mountain nests, so let all our lives take their voyage to you, O Lord. For you have made us for yourself, and our hearts will never rest, until they rest in you. Only those who have flown home to You have flown at all.

During the month of November, we take the time to pause and remember those who have died and await the resurrection of the body at the end of time, especially those in our parish cemeteries. "May the Lord grant eternal rest to them and send his comfort and strength to us, the living, as we look forward to our reunion, one day, in the glory of God's eternal kingdom in heaven."

Envelopes for All Souls are available at the back of the Church and may be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November. The names will be remembered at the Masses during the year, along with candles at the altar.

From the Maine, circa 1890, a father teaches his daughter a lesson about God: "No need prayin' to God. If you're deservin', no need askin'. If you're not deservin', no use askin'."

Some seminary students like to tell their professors what they know. One professor after listening to one such student, nodded, "Hmmm, sure—but where'd you get that idea?" Similarly, we want to ask the father quoted here, "Hmmm, where'd you get that idea about God? Because you sure didn't get it from the Bible." If God answered prayers based on merit, no prayer would be answered. If God's patience was based on merit, we'd feel his wrath every moment. If God saved only the deserving, then we all would be in trouble. Isaiah 41:10 is a simple statement of fact: "No matter what you're going through, how dark or deep the despair, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." In the fullness of time, we'd learn he'd held out his left one too.

Today's Quote: They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old. Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning we will remember them.

Next Weeks 2nd Collection: Shepherds' Trust

There will be a second collection for The Shepherds' Trust on the weekend of Nov 15/16, 2025. The mission of The Shepherds' Trust is to help ensure that elderly and disabled priests are provided with sufficient financial resources to lead a dignified life after many years of ministry. Your generous gift will help our priests to maintain a modest but active and independent lifestyle in their retirement years. For priests who are ill or otherwise infirm, the Trust ensures they have access to nursing home facilities and medical care. Thank you for your support of this important work!
