Pastor's Message

Family members are the one area of life about which we have no choice. Our selection of career, spouse, residence and hobbies are all our own doing. God, however, chose the people we would call family. We don't always agree with all of them and they don't always agree with us. Still, He had a reason for making them a part of our life. Sometimes family members tell us things about ourselves we don't want to hear. We don't want to hear them because they are true and we would rather not face it. At times they see talents in us we don't recognize and they urge us to do things we never dreamed we could. When we do accomplish them we reluctantly admit they were right about us and thank them. This is not a one way street. God also gave you to your family members as His gift. Don't worry. He always chooses the right gift for the right people.

Pope Leo XIV @Pontifex...Saint Augustine described our hearts as restless. That restlessness is oriented towards heaven, whose doors are open to us as a result of the incarnation, passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. If we enter into the dynamism of His love and grace, Jesus will be victorious in us—not just at the hour of our death, but also today, right now, and every day hereafter.

Communion Reflection... A family is God's gift to us. And this gift is given to us so that we can grow into mature and loving human persons. One of the very basic things that a family should give to each of its members is a deep sense of belonging. "Belonging is important for our growth to independence; even further, it is important for our growth to inner freedom and maturity. It is only through belonging that we can break out of the shell of individualism and self-centeredness that both protects and isolates us."

Humanity's greatest accomplishments would not have been possible without the basic skills of ordinary people. The heroic explorers of the world could never have left their shores had it not been for the craftsmanship of carpenters, sail makers, ship builders and metal workers.

Twenty-first century scientific advances are made possible by the basic skills of ordinary people. How can one operate sophisticated computers of the aerospace industry without someone to maintain the heating, air conditioning and electric lighting? God saw fit to spread the message of eternal salvation using the skills of common shepherds, carpenters and fishermen. Sometimes we wonder how such ordinary people like ourselves can fit into God's plan for spreading His word in the world. Only He knows the answer. What we do know is how successful God is at what He does. He must think a great deal of us to give us such important work and know, better than we realize, how well we can accomplish it.

On the Lighter Side... It was the day after Christmas at a church in San Francisco. The pastor of the church was looking over the nativity scene when he noticed that the baby Jesus was missing from among the figures. He hurried outside and saw a little boy with a red wagon, and in the wagon was the figure of the little infant Jesus. So he walked up to the boy and said, "Well, where did you get your passenger, my fine friend?" The little boy replied, "I got Him at church." "And why did you take Him?" The boy replied, "Well, about a week before Christmas, I prayed to the little Lord Jesus and I told Him if He would bring me a red wagon for Christmas, He would be the first to get a ride in it!"
