Pope Leo XIV@Pontifex...God's heart is torn apart by wars, violence, injustice and lies. But our Father's heart is not with the wicked, the arrogant, or the proud. God's heart is with the little ones and the humble, and with them He builds up His Kingdom of love and peace day by day. Wherever there is love and service, God is there.

From the Pastor's Desk

Their bible study had met weekly for more years than they wished to count. They were all retired now and struggling in one way or another with aging. One of them quipped that their sessions were becoming less a study of Scripture than a recounting of aches and pains. And the phrase heard most often was "It's tough getting old." The realities of aging are hard to ignore. But these longtime friends were getting weary of their own complaints. Yes, they all carried crosses. But there was more to their lives than aging bodies— just as there was infinitely more to the life of Jesus than suffering and death. As Easter neared, their attitudes changed. Would they still face challenges? Of course. Maybe even more so. But if they trusted in the Lord, his strength and consolation would abide with them.

Vocations...Do you recognize Christ in your life?

Does your heart burn in his presence? How are you being called - as a priest, deacon, brother or sister? If God is calling you to serve him as a priest, deacon, brother or sister, contact Father Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-

968-997 vocations@archtoronto.org www.vocationstoronto.com

Communion Reflection...All through life's day, you walk with us, Lord. But often we don't recognize you, for we are blinded by work and worry, doubt, confusion and fear, and so you remain a stranger to us. Before the day's end we will ask many questions, experience many sorrows and disappointments. And then, suddenly, whether we are young, middle-aged, or old, we find that night is approaching. In that moment we pray, that, like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, our eyes will be opened, and that we will recognize you. And you will not vanish from our sight, but stay with us to guide us to the Father's house.

The CWL cordially invite all Ladies 12 years and older to join us for a delightful High Tea. We will be serving delicious homemade sandwiches, freshly baked scones and exquisite sweets, freshly brewed tea and great company! Come relax, connect, and enjoy a cozy afternoon together at the St. Mary's parish hall on Sunday afternoon, May 3rd. Tickets available after mass or call Angie 416-917-0406

First Holy Communions

Please pray for our young people who will be receiving their First Holy Communion during April and May.

“Whomever eats this bread lives forever”

Garden of Lilies...Easter is a time when we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus and remember our loved ones. Thank you to everyone that purchased an Easter Lily in memory of a loved one.

LET US PRAY... GOD, give me eyes that I might see the work that can be done by me. GOD, give me ears that I might hear the cries of those who need me near. GOD, give me lips that I might speak comfort and peace to all that seek. GOD, give me a mind that I might know to help the ones that need me so. GOD, give me hands that I might do some large or simple task for you. GOD, give me prayer that I might pray for help and guidance every day. And this one thing above all else above, GOD, give me a heart that I might love.

I once saw a movie based on a true story. A coast guard crew goes out to sea one stormy night on a rescue mission. When all the town lights go out, the townspeople rush to the harbor and turn on their car lights so the guardsmen can find their way back to shore. We are called to do something similar—work together and rescue others who need to find their way back to Jesus. With grace, we can go out in the darkness of the world and rescue others. We can gather with others—pooling our lights of Christ’s love into one bright beacon of hope. Jesus, help me join with others to spread your love.

Congratulations to all of the students who received their 1st Holy Communion last weekend.

Communion Reflection... It was a cry of total desperation, a feeling of complete abandonment. That is what Jesus experienced as he suffered the consequences of human sin on the cross. It’s the cry also of many Christians who see no sign of relief from persistent affliction. Then it is time to recall what Jesus did for us on the cross, to free us from the curse of our sins. Psalm 22 is an expression of faith that God will not fail to come to our rescue in due time. Could it be that Jesus, with perfect faith, was praying the psalm’s words of trust even as he suffered the worst? We can be sure that our loving God will never abandon us. Because of what Jesus did we are “cocooned in grace” as we await our final release into an eternity of life with our Saviour and our Heavenly Father.

2nd Collection next weekend for ShareLife.

Next week, we will be holding the second collection in our parish’s ShareLife campaign. We ask for your kind generosity and support once again. Thus far we have raised $ 3,170.00 at St.

Patrick’s & $4,097.00 at St. Mary’s. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate. Thank you for “living the Gospel” through our parish ShareLife campaign.

May is The Month of Mary

One sign of the Christian spirit is that our thoughts turn to the spiritual side of each season of the year. The month of December brings thoughts of Christmas; March is linked in our thoughts with Lent and Easter; October is the month of the rosary. And the month of May brings us memories of Mary and reminds us of our devotion to her. The union of the month of May and Mary is quite natural. The very names are interchangeable. The mood of May is the mood of hope and joy; Mary is the mother of hope and the cause of our joy. Ancient traditions have embedded themselves in the language and customs of every Christian nation. We gather flowers and lay them before our Lady and Mother. Red roses remind us of the wounds of Christ and of the faithfulness of his Mother as she stood beneath the cross. Sometimes we might wonder if we have lost our spiritual joy. In our country we have few, if any, religious fiestas or festivals or processions with music and banners. But the month of May reminds us that joy is for the taking. As we honor Mary, may our devotion to her lead us to love and serve God joyfully. We can let go of grudging, reluctant duty, remembering instead our loving God and Mary our Mother. Then there will be springtime in our souls and Mary's own Maytime in our hearts.

During the month of May special focus is placed on devotions, such as the Rosary. The Rosary will be prayed before all Masses and crowning of Mary at every weekend Mass by the children.

Have a Blessed Week!!
