From the Pastor's Desk

The history of humanity might be summed up this way: God does something good; we return the favour, followed by God returning our favour. God creates the heavens and the earth for us. We wanted more. God returned the favour by keeping the lights on and the water running. God spoke indirectly through his prophets. We didn't like their downer messages, so we killed them. God returned the favour by sending his Son. Jesus sat down at the table offering his very body and blood, while we plotted to betray him. Jesus returned the favour by breaking the bread, and saying, "This is my body, given for you." Jesus told us he would pay the severe cost for our sins. We told him not to bother, "We got this!" He returned the favour by receiving the nails. Jesus said he's rise on the third day. We stayed shut up in a tomb with our four walls and a locked door. Jesus returned the favour by saying, "Mary!"— on the third day.

Vocations... The Good Shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them. Is He asking you to help others to find Him? Pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and religious life, especially for our archdiocese, that God will raise up good shepherds in our midst. If God is calling you to serve him as a priest, deacon, brother or sister, contact Father Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-997 vocations@archtoronto.org vocations@archtoronto.org /www.vocationstoronto.com

Communion Reflection...

We know how final death is. But Jesus' ultimate triumph over death came on the day he defeated death forever. Jesus arose from the grave victorious over the power of death. Facing the harsh reality and finality of death can never be the same when we truly believe the Easter miracle. The sting of death will still burn like fire when a loved one is taken from us. But we can go on living for Jesus in the midst of our heartache and heartbreak, because we know that death was defeated for us, by him who is the resurrection and the life, the One who conquered death forever.

LET US PRAY... GOD, give me eyes that I might see the work that can be done by me. GOD, give me ears that I might hear the cries of those who need me near. GOD, give me lips that I might speak comfort and peace to all that seek. GOD, give me a mind that I might know to help the ones that need me so. GOD, give me hands that I might do some large or simple task for you. GOD, give me prayer that I might pray for help and guidance every day. And this one thing above all else above, GOD, give me a heart that I might love.

Pastor's Easter Message
I'll see you when you get back," she yelled to her husband as he roared off on his motorcycle. But tragically, he never came back alive. We may say it casually to a friend or loved one: "I'll see you again." And we usually do. But sometimes a devastating illness or tragedy shatters our earthly bonds. And we may not even have a chance to say goodbye. However, in our time of sorrow and despair, there is genuine consolation and hope. "Because I live," Jesus promised, "you will also live." We who live by faith in the Christ of Cavalry and the empty tomb will see him again, when it is our turn to leave the bonds of earth and rise to life eternal.

SUNDAY, APRIL 26th IS THE FEAST OF OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL, who is The Patroness of the Catholic Womens' League of Canada. During this weekend's masses, the CWL Ladies of St. Mary's are serving during the mass to honour our Lady. We encourage you, to also honour Our Lady, Our Mother Mary, by praying this prayer and seeking her good counsel and help.

Prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel:
Dearest Mary, in our uncertainty, we cast ourselves at thy feet and invoke thee under the sweet title of Mother of Good Counsel. Enlighten us away from doubt and error so that we may not be seduced by evil masquerading as good. Strengthen us against the hostile and corrupting forces of passion and of sin. Mother of Good Counsel, obtain for us our most urgent need [state your request]. Secure for us from thy Divine Son the love of virtue and the ability to know and choose the good and true ways. Guide us to Heaven to enjoy with thee everlasting peace.
Amen. (from Pope Pius XII's prayer)

Communion Reflection...On days like today, we hear a lot of talk about what the country needs, So it's a good day to remember that God, who fashioned and created us out of nothing, knows what we truly need. We know generally what that is: God wants all of his children to be the people he created us to be, living together with him in his kingdom forever. Of course, everyone has different opinions and ideas for how to go about that. So maybe today we need to spend some time together with our Father, asking him for what we need: our daily bread, forgiveness of our sins, and guidance and strength to build his kingdom and do his will on earth, just as it's done in heaven.

2nd Collection this weekend for ShareLife.
This weekend, we will be holding the second collection in our parish's ShareLife campaign. We ask for your kind generosity and support once again. Our goal at St. Patrick's is $17,500, so far we have raised $ 3,170.00. Our goal at St. Mary's is $15,000, so far we have raised $4,097.00. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate. Thank you for "living the Gospel" through our parish ShareLife campaign.

May is The Month of Mary

One sign of the Christian spirit is that our thoughts turn to the spiritual side of each season of the year. The month of December brings thoughts of Christmas; March is linked in our thoughts with Lent and Easter; October is the month of the rosary. And the month of May brings us memories of Mary and reminds us of our devotion to her. The union of the month of May and Mary is quite natural. The very names are interchangeable. The mood of May is the mood of hope and joy; Mary is the mother of hope and the cause of our joy. Ancient traditions have embedded themselves in the language and customs of every Christian nation. Sometimes we might wonder if we have lost our spiritual joy. In Canada we have few, if any, religious fiestas or festivals or processions with music and banners. But the month of May reminds us that joy is for the taking. As we honor Mary, may our devotion to her lead us to love and serve God joyfully. We can let go of grudging, reluctant duty, remembering instead our loving God and Mary our Mother. Then there will be springtime in our souls and Mary's own Maytime in our hearts.

During the month of May we encourage you to pray the Rosary.

Garden of Lilies...Easter is a time when we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus and remember our loved ones. Thank you to everyone that purchased an Easter Lily in memory of a loved one.

Have a Blessed Week!!
