Vocations... "...The Gospel asks for us: "How can Jesus give us His flesh to eat?" Our lack of knowledge does not prevent us from being lured into the mystery. The mystery makes it all the more appealing when we say in faith, "My LORD and my God!" In faith we can respond also to God's invitation to be His priest or religious.,

Have a wonderful week!

Communion Reflection... Jesus said that there are two roads we can follow. The first is wide and easy to travel. It is downhill most of the way. It is the way of comfort and ease, pleasure and self-seeking. Many are fooled and travel down this road. But in the long run it leads them nowhere. They die in the desert. The second road is narrow and difficult. It is uphill a lot of the way. It is the way of struggle and sacrifice. Few take this road. But they are the lucky ones. This road leads to the Promised Land.

On the Lighter Side: A priest was walking down the road and said to the first person he met, "Do you want to go to heaven?" The person replied, "I do Father." The priest said, "Then go stand over there against the wall." Then the priest asked a second person, "Do you want to go to heaven?" "Certainly, Father" was the reply. The priest said, "Then go stand over there against the wall." The priest came upon a third person and asked, "Do you want to go to heaven?" The third said, "No, I don't Father." The priest said, "I don't believe this. You mean to tell me you don't want to go to heaven when you die?" The third said, "Oh, when I die, yes. I thought you were getting a group together to go right now."

Are we Blessed or Lucky!

No matter what happens to us...we are lucky.
We are lucky to be alive...to have problems and challenges... to have strengths and weaknesses... people who love us... a roof over our heads...our health. Take care of what you've got. Focus on the positive. Know that you are very, very fortunate, and things could indeed, be much worse! Therefore, treat yourself as a lucky person today and every day. Blessed=Lucky

Today's Quote: Coincidence is when God chooses to remain anonymous.

Whenever a group of children are playing outdoors and their mothers are gathered in the house near an open window, each mother can tell if a cry is coming from her individual child no matter how many are playing. Somehow the voices of the others are tuned out so only her child is heard. God loves and understands us better than any mother ever could. Sometimes we wonder if He loses our prayers amid the rest of the world's many petitions. God made the mothers who can tell their child's cry in a crowded yard. Listening to our prayers in a crowded world will not be any problem to God.

FAMILY

Are you aware that if we died tomorrow, the company that we are working for could easily replace us in a matter of days. But the family we left behind will feel the loss for the rest of their lives. And come to think of it, we pour ourselves more into work than into our own family, an unwise investment indeed, don't you think?

Do you know what the word FAMILY means?

Family = (F)ather (a)nd (M)other (I)l (L)ove (Y)ou

Quotable: Happy moments, praise God. Difficult moments, seek God. Quiet moments, worship God. Painful moments, trust God. Every moment, thank God.

Beatitudes of an Elderly Person

Blessed are they who understand
My faltering step and crippled hand.
Blessed are they that know my ears today
Must strain to hear the things they say.
Blessed are they that seem to know
That my eyes are dim and my answers are slow..
Blessed are they who look away
When my tea was spilled at the table today.
Blessed are they with a cheery smile
Who stopped to chat for a little while.
Blessed are they that never say
You have told that story twice today.
Blessed are they that make it known
That I am loved and not alone.
Blessed are all that ease the days.
Of my sunset years in loving ways.
Blessed are my family who are so very dear
Their good care is why I am still here.

From the Pastor's Desk

To be truly Catholic therefore means to enter into the Catholic wisdom tradition. It means appreciating all of creation and looking at the world from a universal perspective. It means adopting a holistic outlook that encourages personal growth and social transformation. It means building community and learning from history. It means not being afraid to ask questions about faith, about the Church, or about the world in which we live. Yet all this heritage is pointless unless it also points us to Christ, and to living the gospel. The reason for accepting the Catholic tradition is to learn better from our rich past how to live our faith more deeply today.

"Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love." ~ Mother Teresa

Everybody wants happiness, nobody wants pain, but you can't have a rainbow without a little rain.

Thank you... for your generosity last weekend

On the Lighter Side:

A priest parked his car in a no-parking zone in a large city because he was short of time and couldn't find a space with a meter. So he put a note under the windshield wiper that read: "I have circled the block 10 times. If I don't park here, I'll miss my appointment. FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES." When he returned, he found a citation from a police officer along with this note: "I've circled this block for 10 years. If I don't give you a ticket, I'll lose my job. LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION."
