Vocations... Humble yourself and you will find favour with God.

Are you being called to be a priest or deacon, brother or sister? Humbly ask the Lord. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997 vocations@archtoronto.org / www.vocationstoronto.com

Pope Leo XIV @ Pontifex: "the Pope invites us to reflect on how our actions affect nature, God's work, and to seek ways of living that foster the restoration and natural balance and harmony between human beings and the environment. In the midst of such a competitive, hectic world, dominated by consumerism, a large part of humanity deeply longs to live well, closer to and more respectful of nature – a style of life that would allow us to contemplate it in an attentive silence that leads to an encounter with ourselves, with God and with others."

Ladies Auxiliary Announcement

The St. Patrick's Ladies Auxiliary is meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 23rd, 2025 for fellowship, snacks, prayer and share ways we can all help support parish initiatives, such as fund-raising, coffee Sundays, bake sales, decorating our church for Easter and Christmas, upkeep of our church gardens and much more. Please contact Tania Crane at tania.crane27@gmail.com

Communion Reflection... Blessed are those who realise that they cannot live on bread alone but need the word of God too: they will be fully nourished. Blessed are those who, when they have sinned, follow the example of the prodigal son, and come back home to seek reconciliation: they will cause heaven to ring with joy. Blessed are those who stop to attend to a wounded neighbour, pouring in the oil of compassion and the wine of hope: they are the Good Samaritans of today. Blessed are those who remove the plank from their own eyes before telling their brother or sister to remove the splinter from theirs: their efforts at reforming others will bear fruit. And blessed are those who, having put their hand to the plough, refuse to look back: they will be found worthy of the Kingdom.

In Our Parish... As the parish grows so does our need for more volunteers. If you are interested in becoming a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, Altar Server, Knights of Columbus, or Catholic Women's League; pick up an application from the back of the church or contact the office 905-859-5522. Come and join us – have fun, learn more about our faith, help by being a part of our Parish family, and make new friends.

To all the school teachers and school children.

BLESSINGS that they had a great first week back to school.

Today's Quote: Grandparents are there to help the child get into mischief they haven't thought of yet.

Flowers for Our Lady of Guadalupe are being offered for all the school teachers and school children. We pray they have a blessed school year ahead.

On life's journey, so many of us insist on carrying such a heavy burden of guilt that the trip has become almost unbearable. For some reason, we are reluctant to let go of this terrible guilt that is weighing us down. Today our Scripture readings are full of good news. What better news could there be than GOD IS WAITING FOR US WITH OPEN ARMS – ready to throw a party for us when we decide to turn away from our wrong doing, and come back home once again? If, at this time, you are suffering because you find yourselves caught in some kind of sin that you are despairing of, then take these readings to heart. Read them over and over again until you are utterly convinced of their truthfulness. God does not hold grudges. God is not sneaking around, waiting for us to sin, so that he can pounce on us. On the contrary, God is ready and waiting. Ready to forgive us – waiting for us to have even the slightest regret for what we have done. We don't have to come crawling into God's presence with fear and trembling. Forgiveness and new life are the gifts that God is always ready and willing to lavish on us. May we all have the courage and wisdom to let God bring forgiveness to our lives and joy to our hearts.

Knights of Columbus St. Pats
MacGregors Fundraiser on Saturday Oct 4th
(pick-up at St. Pat's parking lot). All orders need to be submitted by Sept 30th.

Cardinal Leo encourages you to reach out to your neighbour in need

“We cannot turn away from the suffering around us, especially when so many struggle just to eat. Our Catholic family is called not only to witness God's love but to live it boldly: feed the hungry, restore dignity, and stand shoulder to shoulder with those in need. As Scripture reminds us in Isaiah 58:10, ‘If you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness.’ Together, through these grants and our generous hearts, we bring hope where despair threatens to take hold.” Please give generously and wholeheartedly through sharelife.org/donate or our parish using a ShareLife envelope. Thank you for living the Gospel.

Beatitudes of an Elderly Person

Blessed are they who understand
My faltering step and crippled hand.
Blessed are they that know my ears today
Must strain to hear the things they say.
Blessed are they that seem to know
That my eyes are dim and my answers are slow.
Blessed are they who look away
When my tea was spilled at the table today.
Blessed are they with a cheery smile
Who stopped to chat for a little while.
Blessed are they that never say
You have told that story twice today.
Blessed are they that make it known
That I am loved and not alone.
Blessed are all that ease the days.
Of my sunset years in loving ways.
Blessed are my family who are so very dear
Their good care is why I am still here.
I asked God for water,
he gave me an ocean.
I asked God for a flower,
he gave me a garden.
I asked God for a tree,
he gave me a forest.
I asked God for a friend,
he gave me Grandparents!

Happy Grandparents Day

People involved in preparing couples for marriage stress the importance of doing things together. This is most essential after children arrive. Parents can become so involved in their children's activities that they forget to strengthen their bond as a couple. The solution, of course, is to take time to get away together even if only for a few hours alone. This helps strengthen the marriage and better equips the parents to handle the many stresses involved in child rearing. Our spiritual life also involves maintaining a bond with the most important person in this life and the next. Like busy parents we can become so preoccupied with this world's worries that we forget the One who is really more important than any of them. Take some time now and then to let God know how much He means to you. He's always telling you what you mean to Him.

Communion Reflection... Lord Jesus, we pray for all the sheep that are lost, but our hearts go out especially to the lost lambs. Have mercy on the human wolves who steal, exploit, and sometimes kill the lambs of the Father's flock; help them to see the horror of what they are doing. Comfort the grieving parents who in many cases don't even have the consolation of a burial service. In your merciful love grant that those lambs, though lost here, may be found hereafter. Watch over those who are still straying here below. Guide them along the paths that are safe. Send shepherds to look for them. And open the eyes of society so that we may cease to regard property as more important than people.

Have a Wonderful Week!
